SUBMISSION OF THE

(1) I understand that the Court must determine whether I should be detained or released, pending future judicial proceedings.

(2) I have discussed with my attorney my right to present evidence and make argument on this determination. All the questions I have concerning that right have been answered. I understand that by not requesting a hearing to present evidence and make argument, the Court will make the determination based upon the information within the Court's record.

(3) At this time, I wish to give up my right to present evidence and make argument on the determination of detention or release and submit the matter to the Court, but reserve the right to request reconsideration of this determination at a later date.
